

Good Values for Saturday

Fleeced Pants and Vests, Regular 50c Values, 35c

To somewhat reduce our stock in Fleeced Underwear, we offer you the opportunity to buy our regular 50c Vests and Pants for 35c each.

85c Muslin Curtains for 60c a Pair.

We have too many Muslin Curtains at 85c a pair, to close out the lot we have made this low price. A large size Curtain made of figured muslin with brade edges, an extra value at 60c per pair.

Cotton Huck Towels, 10c Each.

This the best value in a Towel that we have ever offered. 18 x 36 with a fancy, woven border, while these Towels last, only 10c each.

PERRY & CAMP.

Telephone 258-4.

75 Main Street, Barre, Vermont.

1891 Our 1911

Twentieth Anniversary*and RED TAG SALE
Starts*Monday Morning, Jan. 16, 1911*Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Lace Curtains, Draperies, and Couch Covers

See Saturday's Barre Times for further particulars and be sure and be on hand early Monday morning for bargains in House Furnishings.

B. W. HOOKER & CO.,

UNDERTAKERS FUNERAL DIRECTORS LICENSED EMBALMERS
HOSPITAL AMBULANCE SERVICE—ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO TELEPHONE 87-11. ALSO ORANGE COUNTY PHONE.

RETURN THIS AD.

With 15c and get a 25c bottle of Drown's Rose Cream, an exquisite preparation for chapped hands, lips and any roughness of the skin.

E. A. DROWN

Drugs and Kodaks

Prescription Druggist, 48 No. Main St., Barre, Vermont

Wiley's Waxene

For Kitchen and All Other Wood Floors

Also linoleums, oil cloths and furniture. Protects the floors from hot water, soap suds, grease, hot fat and such things that usually spot and disfigure your floors.

Waxene is neither a wax, a wash nor a polish but something new. The only wood dressing of its kind in the world, and is guaranteed to do all that is claimed for it.

ASK FOR A BOOKLET.

C. W. AVERILL & CO.,

81 and 85 North Main Street, Barre, Vermont

Clearance Sale of Sleds

A grand opportunity to buy a good quality Sled at discounts offered below. Guaranteed to be in perfect condition and this year's stock.
2 only, Girls' Wood Sleds, regular price $2 88, now, each, $2 00
6 only, Girls' Wood Sleds, regular price $1 50, now, each, $1 12
4 only, Girls' Wood Sleds, regular price $1 25, now, each, 95c
6 only, Girls' Wood Sleds, regular price $1 00, now, each, 75c
3 only, Girls' Wood Sleds, regular price 75c, now, each, 62c

We can also give exceptionally low prices on all our Steel Sleds, including Flexible Steering.

3 All-steel Sleds, regular price $1 75, now, each, $1 30
3 Flexible Sleds, regular price $1 75, now, each, $1 30

From our large stock which we had this year there are left only two Boys' Sleds, which we offer at—

1 only, Boys' Wood Sled, regular price $1 75, now, $1 30
1 only, Boys' Wood Sled, regular price $1 50, now, $1 12

Do not forget our Cut Prices on Enameled Ware, which is proving a big success to eager Sale Buyers. If you have not inspected these goods now displayed, do so at once.

Many other Bargains offered in different lines, which we have arranged on counters for the inspection of the public at prices that are interesting to see.

C. N. KENYON & CO.'S CASH BARGAIN STORE*TALK OF THE TOWN.

New Home sewing machines at Fitts'.

Blankets at money saving prices at Fitts'.

Abbott's clearance sale closes Saturday evening.

John McConick of Northfield was a visitor in the city yesterday.

A bargain in a buck towel, 18x36, at 10c each, at Perry's on Saturday.

Fresh malaga grapes and other fresh fruits just arrived at the Vermont Fruit Store.

If it is anything in a shirtwaist, we can serve you. The Paris Shirtwaist House.

Selden S. Watson and S. C. Green of St. Albans were business visitors in the city today.

Mrs. David McKnight received news yesterday of the death of her father in New York City.

Mrs. C. H. Barton went yesterday to Waterbury, where she will remain with friends for a few days.

Fancy grape fruit, 4 for 25c; Florida sweet oranges, 20c per dozen, 16 for 25c. United Fruit Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tilden have returned home, after spending several days with relatives in Northfield.

A large assortment of ladies' hand-embroidered shirtwaists just arrived at the Paris Shirtwaist House.

Arthur E. Griffith of Plainfield, formerly employed in Miers' barber shop, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

N. A. McDonald of Granville went to Milan, P. Q., yesterday, called there by the serious illness of his mother.

We have too many muslin curtains at 85c a pair; consequently we have reduced the price to 60c per pair. At Perry's on Saturday.

Pedro's orchestra will furnish music for a reunion to be held at the home of C. W. Whitman of South Main street this evening.

The boy scouts of the Congregational church will meet at the church vestry this evening at 7:30; instruction on first aid to the injured.

Special for Saturday: home-made round candy and klondike drops, 15c a pound. These candies will be made fresh on Saturday at the Barre Candy Kitchen.

The railroad crossing near the Trow &amp; Holden plant on South Main street was the scene of an exciting accident last night.

A sleighload of travelers was proceeding down the street at an easy gait, when the horse gave a sudden lurch on nearing the track. The shock deposited the occupants, three in number, on the ground with no little force.

After recovering from the surprise of such an unexpected jolt, the three men examined the sleigh and found that, beyond a broken dash board no damage had been done. With the exception of a few minor scratches, the occupants of the sleigh escaped injury.

The ladies' and pastor's union of the Hedding M. E. church met in the league room yesterday afternoon and elected the following officers to serve during the year: President, Mrs. H. W. Shores; 1st vice president, Mrs. Harry Johnson; 2d vice president, Mrs. Joseph Hoyt; secretary, Mrs. Ethel Travers; treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Hoyt; executive committee, Mrs. Nicholas eVale, Mrs. C. H. Kennerman, Mrs. Harry Johnson, Mrs. E. O. Thayer, Mrs. Mordock Patterson; visitation committee, Mrs. S. H. Barnes; sick and needy committee, Mrs. Fred Bockley; flower committee, Mrs. Mordock Patterson; entertainment committee, Mrs. E. M. Lyon; refreshment committee, Mrs. A. L. Skinner; new member committee, Mrs. Peter Laxon. The meeting adjourned to the dining room, where a delicious oyster supper was served to the members under supervision of Mrs. A. L. Skinner and Mrs. Ethel Travers.

TOO LATE TO BE CLASSIFIED.

FOR SALE—Turnip, carrots at the hotel. Cabbage at 14 for $1.00. Apply to E. Rich. East Hill, R. F. D. No. 1. Tel. 2.

LOST—Gold Watch, between King's jewelry store and 9 Maple Ave., Wednesday night. Will finder return to Calder &amp; Richardson's office, Depot square.

WANTED—A three horse power electric motor. C. W. McMillan &amp; Son, Blackwell st.

The ladies of the Methodist church furnished an oyster supper in Lynde hall Wednesday evening to forty-five members of the Epworth league from Barre, accompanied by pastor E. O. Thayer. After supper, the visitors were guests of the Good Templars, enjoying a literary entertainment, followed by a social hour, an all-around good time for all. Come again.

Mrs. Jerome Brockway has received a card from James Olney Field, reporting the death of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth N. Field, at the home of her daughter in York, Pa., Jan. 8, at the age of 83. Mrs. Field was the widow of the late Rev. Daniel Field, who was pastor of the Methodist church in Williams-town in 1844-5, also in 1847. After retiring from the active ministry, Mr. Field spent the last years of his life in this town, his death occurring May 20, 1883. Mrs. Field had been in feeble health for many years and was also blind. Yet she retained interest in the affairs of the church till the last. The new pulpit in the Methodist church here was placed by Mrs. Field and her son, Henry, in memory of the husband and father, and the communion table by her son, James Olney Field. The funeral was held at Corinth Corner Wednesday forenoon, Rev. Fred Daniels of Chelsea officiating, and the body was laid to rest by the side of her kindred. Four sons and three daughters are left to cherish the memory of her good life.

EAST MONTPELIER.

The annual event in East Montpelier, the young and old folks' ball, occurred last evening and was largely attended. Just how many were present it is impossible to state, but tickets were sold to 112 couples and there were a large number besides, many being from other towns, and even as far away as Burlington. Eiby's orchestra furnished the music for dancing. A fine banquet was served, Mrs. C. N. Benedict of Barre acting as caterer, and the dance passed into history as one of the best ever.

R. Lynn Clark and wife or now established in their new home.

Remember the Winoski Valley pot-omous grange meeting at Plainfield next Wednesday, Jan. 18. This potomous includes five granges and good meetings are always held. The afternoon session will be public and speakers from away, including W. F. McSparran, corn expert from Furnace, Pa., and O. L. Martin, commissioner of agriculture, of Plainfield, as well as others, will take part.

The largest auction to be held in this vicinity for some time was the one at the home of the late Clinton Cutler last Wednesday. A large number were present from Barre, Montpelier and the surrounding towns, prices being high and everything selling well. The sale was under the direction of S. W. Coburn, administrator of the Cutler estate.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Death of Road Commissioner O. A. Blanchard.

Origen A. Blanchard, the well-known road commissioner of Williamstown, died at his home yesterday, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Blanchard was one of Williamstown's prominent citizens and has served the town as representative. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at his late residence.

The union chorus will meet Monday evening at the house of W. B. Jones at half past seven.

Mrs. Henry E. Wood, formerly a resident of this place and now of St. Albans, came to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lynde Wednesday.

After the third degree meeting of the Masons Wednesday evening, all were served an oyster supper by landlord Marr of the Williamstown inn. Forty or more partook, and all pronounced it fine.

Among those present at the funeral of Mrs. Lynde Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stewart of Berlin, whose marriage at Northfield took place January 4. Mrs. Stewart, formerly Miss Eliza M. Roberts, lived with Mrs. Lynde for a time after Mr. Lynde's death in 1908.

The ladies of the Methodist church furnished an oyster supper in Lynde hall Wednesday evening to forty-five members of the Epworth league from Barre, accompanied by pastor E. O. Thayer. After supper, the visitors were guests of the Good Templars, enjoying a literary entertainment, followed by a social hour, an all-around good time for all. Come again.

Mrs. Jerome Brockway has received a card from James Olney Field, reporting the death of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth N. Field, at the home of her daughter in York, Pa., Jan. 8, at the age of 83. Mrs. Field was the widow of the late Rev. Daniel Field, who was pastor of the Methodist church in Williams-town in 1844-5, also in 1847. After retiring from the active ministry, Mr. Field spent the last years of his life in this town, his death occurring May 20, 1883. Mrs. Field had been in feeble health for many years and was also blind. Yet she retained interest in the affairs of the church till the last. The new pulpit in the Methodist church here was placed by Mrs. Field and her son, Henry, in memory of the husband and father, and the communion table by her son, James Olney Field. The funeral was held at Corinth Corner Wednesday forenoon, Rev. Fred Daniels of Chelsea officiating, and the body was laid to rest by the side of her kindred. Four sons and three daughters are left to cherish the memory of her good life.

EAST MONTPELIER.

The annual event in East Montpelier, the young and old folks' ball, occurred last evening and was largely attended. Just how many were present it is impossible to state, but tickets were sold to 112 couples and there were a large number besides, many being from other towns, and even as far away as Burlington. Eiby's orchestra furnished the music for dancing. A fine banquet was served, Mrs. C. N. Benedict of Barre acting as caterer, and the dance passed into history as one of the best ever.

R. Lynn Clark and wife or now established in their new home.

Remember the Winoski Valley pot-omous grange meeting at Plainfield next Wednesday, Jan. 18. This potomous includes five granges and good meetings are always held. The afternoon session will be public and speakers from away, including W. F. McSparran, corn expert from Furnace, Pa., and O. L. Martin, commissioner of agriculture, of Plainfield, as well as others, will take part.

The largest auction to be held in this vicinity for some time was the one at the home of the late Clinton Cutler last Wednesday. A large number were present from Barre, Montpelier and the surrounding towns, prices being high and everything selling well. The sale was under the direction of S. W. Coburn, administrator of the Cutler estate.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Death of Road Commissioner O. A. Blanchard.

Origen A. Blanchard, the well-known road commissioner of Williamstown, died at his home yesterday, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Blanchard was one of Williamstown's prominent citizens and has served the town as representative. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at his late residence.

The union chorus will meet Monday evening at the house of W. B. Jones at half past seven.

Mrs. Henry E. Wood, formerly a resident of this place and now of St. Albans, came to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lynde Wednesday.

After the third degree meeting of the Masons Wednesday evening, all were served an oyster supper by landlord Marr of the Williamstown inn. Forty or more partook, and all pronounced it fine.

Among those present at the funeral of Mrs. Lynde Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stewart of Berlin, whose marriage at Northfield took place January 4. Mrs. Stewart, formerly Miss Eliza M. Roberts, lived with Mrs. Lynde for a time after Mr. Lynde's death in 1908.

The ladies of the Methodist church furnished an oyster supper in Lynde hall Wednesday evening to forty-five members of the Epworth league from Barre, accompanied by pastor E. O. Thayer. After supper, the visitors were guests of the Good Templars, enjoying a literary entertainment, followed by a social hour, an all-around good time for all. Come again.

Mrs. Jerome Brockway has received a card from James Olney Field, reporting the death of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth N. Field, at the home of her daughter in York, Pa., Jan. 8, at the age of 83. Mrs. Field was the widow of the late Rev. Daniel Field, who was pastor of the Methodist church in Williams-town in 1844-5, also in 1847. After retiring from the active ministry, Mr. Field spent the last years of his life in this town, his death occurring May 20, 1883. Mrs. Field had been in feeble health for many years and was also blind. Yet she retained interest in the affairs of the church till the last. The new pulpit in the Methodist church here was placed by Mrs. Field and her son, Henry, in memory of the husband and father, and the communion table by her son, James Olney Field. The funeral was held at Corinth Corner Wednesday forenoon, Rev. Fred Daniels of Chelsea officiating, and the body was laid to rest by the side of her kindred. Four sons and three daughters are left to cherish the memory of her good life.

EAST MONTPELIER.

The annual event in East Montpelier, the young and old folks' ball, occurred last evening and was largely attended. Just how many were present it is impossible to state, but tickets were sold to 112 couples and there were a large number besides, many being from other towns, and even as far away as Burlington. Eiby's orchestra furnished the music for dancing. A fine banquet was served, Mrs. C. N. Benedict of Barre acting as caterer, and the dance passed into history as one of the best ever.

R. Lynn Clark and wife or now established in their new home.

Remember the Winoski Valley pot-omous grange meeting at Plainfield next Wednesday, Jan. 18. This potomous includes five granges and good meetings are always held. The afternoon session will be public and speakers from away, including W. F. McSparran, corn expert from Furnace, Pa., and O. L. Martin, commissioner of agriculture, of Plainfield, as well as others, will take part.

The largest auction to be held in this vicinity for some time was the one at the home of the late Clinton Cutler last Wednesday. A large number were present from Barre, Montpelier and the surrounding towns, prices being high and everything selling well. The sale was under the direction of S. W. Coburn, administrator of the Cutler estate.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Death of Road Commissioner O. A. Blanchard.

Origen A. Blanchard, the well-known road commissioner of Williamstown, died at his home yesterday, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Blanchard was one of Williamstown's prominent citizens and has served the town as representative. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at his late residence.

The union chorus will meet Monday evening at the house of W. B. Jones at half past seven.

Mrs. Henry E. Wood, formerly a resident of this place and now of St. Albans, came to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lynde Wednesday.

After the third degree meeting of the Masons Wednesday evening, all were served an oyster supper by landlord Marr of the Williamstown inn. Forty or more partook, and all pronounced it fine.

Among those present at the funeral of Mrs. Lynde Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stewart of Berlin, whose marriage at Northfield took place January 4. Mrs. Stewart, formerly Miss Eliza M. Roberts, lived with Mrs. Lynde for a time after Mr. Lynde's death in 1908.

The ladies of the Methodist church furnished an oyster supper in Lynde hall Wednesday evening to forty-five members of the Epworth league from Barre, accompanied by pastor E. O. Thayer. After supper, the visitors were guests of the Good Templars, enjoying a literary entertainment, followed by a social hour, an all-around good time for all. Come again.

Mrs. Jerome Brockway has received a card from James Olney Field, reporting the death of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth N. Field, at the home of her daughter in York, Pa., Jan. 8, at the age of 83. Mrs. Field was the widow of the late Rev. Daniel Field, who was pastor of the Methodist church in Williams-town in 1844-5, also in 1847. After retiring from the active ministry, Mr. Field spent the last years of his life in this town, his death occurring May 20, 1883. Mrs. Field had been in feeble health for many years and was also blind. Yet she retained interest in the affairs of the church till the last. The new pulpit in the Methodist church here was placed by Mrs. Field and her son, Henry, in memory of the husband and father, and the communion table by her son, James Olney Field. The funeral was held at Corinth Corner Wednesday forenoon, Rev. Fred Daniels of Chelsea officiating, and the body was laid to rest by the side of her kindred. Four sons and three daughters are left to cherish the memory of her good life.

EAST MONTPELIER.

The annual event in East Montpelier, the young and old folks' ball, occurred last evening and was largely attended. Just how many were present it is impossible to state, but tickets were sold to 112 couples and there were a large number besides, many being from other towns, and even as far away as Burlington. Eiby's orchestra furnished the music for dancing. A fine banquet was served, Mrs. C. N. Benedict of Barre acting as caterer, and the dance passed into history as one of the best ever.

R. Lynn Clark and wife or now established in their new home.

Remember the Winoski Valley pot-omous grange meeting at Plainfield next Wednesday, Jan. 18. This potomous includes five granges and good meetings are always held. The afternoon session will be public and speakers from away, including W. F. McSparran, corn expert from Furnace, Pa., and O. L. Martin, commissioner of agriculture, of Plainfield, as well as others, will take part.

The largest auction to be held in this vicinity for some time was the one at the home of the late Clinton Cutler last Wednesday. A large number were present from Barre, Montpelier and the surrounding towns, prices being high and everything selling well. The sale was under the direction of S. W. Coburn, administrator of the Cutler estate.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Death of Road Commissioner O. A. Blanchard.

Origen A. Blanchard, the well-known road commissioner of Williamstown, died at his home yesterday, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Blanchard was one of Williamstown's prominent citizens and has served the town as representative. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at his late residence.

The union chorus will meet Monday evening at the house of W. B. Jones at half past seven.

Mrs. Henry E. Wood, formerly a resident of this place and now of St. Albans, came to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lynde Wednesday.

After the third degree meeting of the Masons Wednesday evening, all were served an oyster supper by landlord Marr of the Williamstown inn. Forty or more partook, and all pronounced it fine.

Among those present at the funeral of Mrs. Lynde Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stewart of Berlin, whose marriage at Northfield took place January 4. Mrs. Stewart, formerly Miss Eliza M. Roberts, lived with Mrs. Lynde for a time after Mr. Lynde's death in 1908.

The ladies of the Methodist church furnished an oyster supper in Lynde hall Wednesday evening to forty-five members of the Epworth league from Barre, accompanied by pastor E. O. Thayer. After supper, the visitors were guests of the Good Templars, enjoying a literary entertainment, followed by a social hour, an all-around good time for all. Come again.

Mrs. Jerome Brockway has received a card from James Olney Field, reporting the death of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth N. Field, at the home of her daughter in York, Pa., Jan. 8, at the age of 83. Mrs. Field was the widow of the late Rev. Daniel Field, who was pastor of the Methodist church in Williams-town in 1844-5, also in 1847. After retiring from the active ministry, Mr. Field spent the last years of his life in this town, his death occurring May 20, 1883. Mrs. Field had been in feeble health for many years and was also blind. Yet she retained interest in the affairs of the church till the last. The new pulpit in the Methodist church here was placed by Mrs. Field and her son, Henry, in memory of the husband and father, and the communion table by her son, James Olney Field. The funeral was held at Corinth Corner Wednesday forenoon, Rev. Fred Daniels of Chelsea officiating, and the body was laid to rest by the side of her kindred. Four sons and three daughters are left to cherish the memory of her good life.

EAST MONTPELIER.

The annual event in East Montpelier, the young and old folks' ball, occurred last evening and was largely attended. Just how many were present it is impossible to state, but tickets were sold to 112 couples and there were a large number besides, many being from other towns, and even as far away as Burlington. Eiby's orchestra furnished the music for dancing. A fine banquet was served, Mrs. C. N. Benedict of Barre acting as caterer, and the dance passed into history as one of the best ever.

R. Lynn Clark and wife or now established in their new home.

Remember the Winoski Valley pot-omous grange meeting at Plainfield next Wednesday, Jan. 18. This potomous includes five granges and good meetings are always held. The afternoon session will be public and speakers from away, including W. F. McSparran, corn expert from Furnace, Pa., and O. L. Martin, commissioner of agriculture, of Plainfield, as well as others, will take part.

The largest auction to be held in this vicinity for some time was the one at the home of the late Clinton Cutler last Wednesday. A large number were present from Barre, Montpelier and the surrounding towns, prices being high and everything selling well. The sale was under the direction of S. W. Coburn, administrator of the Cutler estate.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Death of Road Commissioner O. A. Blanchard.

Origen A. Blanchard, the well-known road commissioner of Williamstown, died at his home yesterday, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Blanchard was one of Williamstown's prominent citizens and has served the town as representative. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at his late residence.

The union chorus will meet Monday evening at the house of W. B. Jones at half past seven.

Mrs. Henry E. Wood, formerly a resident of this place and now of St. Albans, came to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lynde Wednesday.

After the third degree meeting of the Masons Wednesday evening, all were served an oyster supper by landlord Marr of the Williamstown inn. Forty or more partook, and all pronounced it fine.

Among those present at the funeral of Mrs. Lynde Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stewart of Berlin, whose marriage at Northfield took place January 4. Mrs. Stewart, formerly Miss Eliza M. Roberts, lived with Mrs. Lynde for a time after Mr. Lynde's death in 1908.

The ladies of the Methodist church furnished an oyster supper in Lynde hall Wednesday evening to forty-five members of the Epworth league from Barre, accompanied by pastor E. O. Thayer. After supper, the visitors were guests of the Good Templars, enjoying a literary entertainment, followed by a social hour, an all-around good time for all. Come again.

Mrs. Jerome Brockway has received a card from James Olney Field, reporting the death of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth N. Field, at the home of her daughter in York, Pa., Jan. 8, at the age of 83. Mrs. Field was the widow of the late Rev. Daniel Field, who was pastor of the Methodist church in Williams-town in 1844-5, also in 1847. After retiring from the active ministry, Mr. Field spent the last years of his life in this town, his death occurring May 20, 1883. Mrs. Field had been in feeble health for many years and was also blind. Yet she retained interest in the affairs of the church till the last. The new pulpit in the Methodist church here was placed by Mrs. Field and her son, Henry, in memory of the husband and father, and the communion table by her son, James Olney Field. The funeral was held at Corinth Corner Wednesday forenoon, Rev. Fred Daniels of Chelsea officiating, and the body was laid to rest by the side of her kindred. Four sons and three daughters are left to cherish the memory of her good life.

EAST MONTPELIER.

The annual event in East Montpelier, the young and old folks' ball, occurred last evening and was largely attended. Just how many were present it is impossible to state, but tickets were sold to 112 couples and there were a large number besides, many being from other towns, and even as far away as Burlington. Eiby's orchestra furnished the music for dancing. A fine banquet was served, Mrs. C. N. Benedict of Barre acting as caterer, and the dance passed into history as one of the best ever.

R. Lynn Clark and wife or now established in their new home.

Remember the Winoski Valley pot-omous grange meeting at Plainfield next Wednesday, Jan. 18. This potomous includes five granges and good meetings are always held. The afternoon session will be public and speakers from away, including W. F. McSparran, corn expert from Furnace, Pa., and O. L. Martin, commissioner of agriculture, of Plainfield, as well as others, will take part.

The largest auction to be held in this vicinity for some time was the one at the home of the late Clinton Cutler last Wednesday. A large number were present from Barre, Montpelier and the surrounding towns, prices being high and everything selling well. The sale was under the direction of S. W. Coburn, administrator of the Cutler estate.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Death of Road Commissioner O. A. Blanchard.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Fitts' anniversary sale closes Saturday night.

Ladies' storm rubbers 65 cents at Fitts' shoe department.

William Romanis went to Northfield to-day on a business trip.

In Masonic hall Friday evening, January 13, at 7 o'clock. Chas. Leslie, sec.

Tickets for "The Time, the Place and the Girl" are now on sale at Kendrick's.

There will be a meeting of the Burns club in Woodmen's hall Monday evening at 7:30.

Miss Jennie Gonyo returned to Springfield, Mass., to-day, after a visit at her home in the city.

The Hedding male chorus will meet for rehearsal in the church Sunday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock.

Miles Morrison returned to-day to his home in Cambridge, Mass., after a business visit in the city.

Sweet California navel oranges, 20c per dozen, 16 for 25c; all sizes and all prices. United Fruit Store.

If you want the latest designs in shirtwaists, go to the Paris Shirtwaist House. New lot just arrived.

Are you happy? Not unless your house is equipped with Rugg's weather strips. No drafts, cold or dust get through. Order to-day at 8 Hall street.

Special for Saturday: home-made round candy and klondike drops, 15c a pound. These candies will be made fresh on Saturday at the Barre Candy Kitchen.

To clean up a lot of our odd shirtwaists, we will sell all sizes in these lots for 50c on Saturday only. There are quite a number of blue and white and black and white striped waists; they are bargains. Paris Shirtwaist House.

Regular meeting of Ladies of Clan Gordon will be held Monday evening, January 16 at 6 o'clock. (Notice the change in time.) Entertainment and dance to be given at 8 o'clock, to which all Clan ladies, their husbands and gentlemen friends are invited.

The Gleasons of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Mary Watson last evening. Included in the business transacted, they made arrangements for the farce, which will come off about the end of next month. (Everyone look out for it.)

Thursday arrivals at the hotel Otis were as follows: A. P. Thayer, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hammond, New York City; J. Grace, Boston; J. D. Frye, St. Johnsbury; A. E. McOmber, Balacon, N. Y.; G. C. Spaulding, Portland, Me